GREAT NEWS!

The Emerging Language and Literacy Curriculum manual is being revised and the 2nd edition should be out late summer.

There is a new publisher, and we will send an e-mail the second it is available to purchase! The majority of the children's books are the same, but there will be a list of just a few new ones to go along with some units. New citation is: Ornes, J., Patterson, S., McMillan, D., Thomas, J., & Trumbower, E. (2017). Emerging Language and Literacy Curriculum, Second Edition. Dynamic Resources, Indiana, PA. <http://dynamic-resources.org/>

We are excited to share all the latest research and some updated units in this edition. You can start the school year off with the first couple of units in your current book and then be ready to switch over to the new book!
