

Mizzou's 100% Online Bachelor's Program in Early Childhood Education prepares educators to work with diverse groups of young children, families, and communities.

UNDERSTAND YOUNG CHILDREN'S CHARACTERISTICS AND NEEDS

Learn to recognize the dynamics that influence children's development while creating partnerships with families and community professionals

PROMOTE POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT AND LEARNING

Apply child observation, documentation, and other forms of assessment to positively influence the development of each child

CREATE AND EVALUATE CHILDREN'S LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

Design, implement, and assess environments that are healthy, respectful, supportive, and intellectually challenging for each child

DIVERSE CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Graduates work in a variety of early childhood education roles and settings

- Early childhood education centers or in-home programs
- Family child care educators
- Infant/toddler specialists
- Head Start and Pre-K programs
- Childcare resource and referral agencies
- Directing early childhood programs
- Before and after-school care programs

100% ONLINE PROGRAM THAT FITS YOUR GOALS

Bachelor of Science (120 credits)

- ECEMS required coursework (51 credits)
 - » Three distinct practicum experiences
 - » Meets standards endorsed by National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)
- HDFS and related requirements (18 credits)
- MU general education requirements and electives (18 credits)
 - » Transfer credits from other regionally accredited institutions may be accepted

Rolling admission; Courses offered year-round

LEARN MORE

online.missouri.edu/ECEMS

Human Development and Family Science
University of Missouri

“Field experience was incorporated into the core of this degree. I went to three different sites and learned how to be a teacher from different sources. The best part was seeing how a classroom works. Now, I am ready to apply that knowledge.”

JENNIFER BRISTOW | WICHITA, KS
EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (BS) '19

After graduation, Jennifer earned a teaching position at a school where she completed her ECEMS practicum.

“The faculty challenge me in my work and inspire me to do more and work harder for the children I serve. The faculty also help me to approach difficult situations with confidence and become a more confident individual and childcare provider.”

EMILY BUSTER | COLUMBIA, MO
EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (BS) STUDENT

Emily is an early childhood educator and plans to open up her own licensed early childhood program upon receiving her degree.

MIZZOU IS A GREAT CHOICE

FLEXIBLE

- 100% online, no campus visits required
- Work full time while earning your degree
- Customize electives to meet your goals

AFFORDABLE

- Tuition reduction available for MU/Extension employees
- 10% tuition award available for military members and graduates of Missouri's community colleges
- Federal financial aid eligible

PRACTICAL

- Applied focus for your current work or future career
- Learn along with other working professionals
- Hands-on advisors help you meet your goals

A UNIQUE DISTANCE EDUCATION

Mizzou participates in the Great Plains Interactive Distance Education Alliance (IDEA). When you enroll in our HDFFS online degree programs, you enroll and pay tuition at Mizzou; your courses are fully online and taught by expert faculty at each of our partner institutions. With us, you'll learn with students from around the globe. Learn more at gpidea.org.

QUESTIONS? CONTACT:

ENROLLMENT AND APPLICATION

Mizzou Online

Enrollment Counselors
573-882-2491
MizzouOnline@missouri.edu

ENTRY AND SUPPORT SERVICES

Alex Embree, M.Ed.

HES Student Services
573-882-0673
EmbreeA@missouri.edu

ACADEMIC AND COURSE CONTENT

Michelle Mathews, PhD

Academic Advisor, HDFFS
573-882-3999
MathewsM@missouri.edu

/MIZZOUHDFS

@MIZZOUHDFS

@MIZZOU_HDFS

online.missouri.edu/ECEMS

IMPROVING THE LIVES OF INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES.

Human Development
and Family Science

University of Missouri